

Devil May Do

Words and music by Bill Dawson

The problem with me is I listen to you.

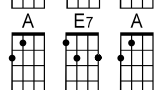

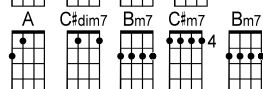

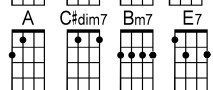

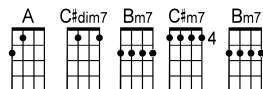

Whispering in my ear like the devil may do.

The devil in me is the devil in you.

And Heaven only knows what the devil may do.

The devil may care. The devil may dare.

The devil may show you things that aren't there.

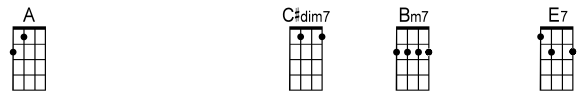

The devil may promise you diamonds and jewels.

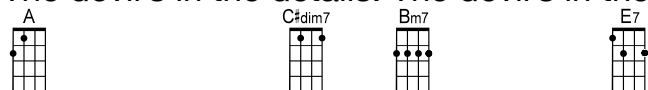

But Heaven only knows what the devil may do.

Devil May Do

Words and music by Bill Dawson

The devil's in the details. The devil's in the plans.

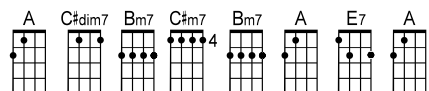

The devil's in women. The devil's in man.

The devil's in me. The devil's in you.

And Heaven only knows what the devil may do.

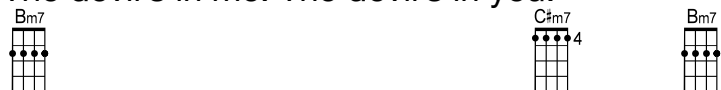

The devil may whisper. The devil may yell.

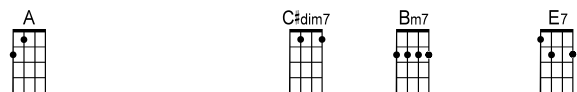

Can you keep a secret that the devil won't tell?

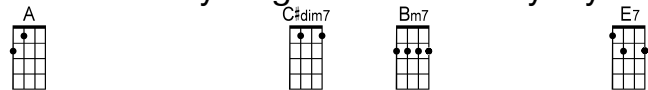

The devil's in me. The devil's in you.

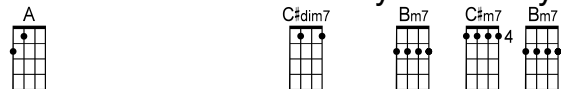

And Heaven only knows what the devil may do.

The devil may laugh. The devil may cry.

A tooth for a tooth. An eye for an eye.

The devil's in me. The devil's in you.

And Heaven only knows what the devil may do
